Why do construction sites use refrigerated containers?

For construction sites, San Diego has relied on refrigerated containers to store ice for concrete pours because the concrete must have a maximum temperature in order to achieve the optimum strength. In San Diego, Aztec Container is one of the leading suppliers of reefer containers. We deliver direct to your door or desired location.

Why do shipping containers make Great Workplaces?

Shipping containers make terrific workplaces because they are mobile, portable, and customizable. With a fleet of trucks, we can deliver your shipping container within days of your order depending on your location and container ordered. As business owners ourselves, we understand your time is valuable.

Why should you choose a solar storage container?

Customize your container according to various configurations, power outputs, and storage capacity according to your needs. Lower your environmental impact and achieve sustainability objectives by using clean, renewable solar energy. Lower energy/maintenance costs ensure operational savings.
